

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

Implementing interworking of addressing schemes in a communication network using at least two different addressing schemes, wherein a first address according to a first addressing scheme is obtained and a second address according to a second addressing scheme is provided by including the first address into the second address such that the first address is represented in the second address. Moreover, an indication is provided that part of the second address represents the first address.